

Knowledge Exchange in Higher Education: Implications for teaching and research

Friday 1st April 2022, Plymouth Marjon University

Time	Location	Description
09:00-09:30	Welcome Desk E207	Registration  Refreshments available in E207
09:30-09:55	E206	Welcome &amp; Conference Opening Professor Michelle Jones, Deputy Vice-Chancellor
10:00-11:00	E206	Conference Keynote Knowledge Exchange: what's under the bonnet? Paul Manners, Associate Professor in Public Engagement at UWE Bristol &amp; founding Director, National Co-ordinating Centre for Public Engagement (NCCPE)
11:00-11:20	E207	Tea/coffee Poster session
11:20-12:20		 Session A:  Room E206   Session B:  Room E208

		Tracing the domains of Student KE in SHAPE disciplines: Reflections on year 1 of the Transforming and Activating Places project  Zelda Hannay, Linnea Pettersson and David Forrest  The University of Sheffield; Faculty of Arts and Humanities Making it happen with multiple stakeholders; effective knowledge exchange for placement-based learning  Alex Mallinson, Esther Pettit, Lynsey Parrott, Jane Callard &amp; Julia Stewart,  Plymouth Marjon University Recognising the Unrecognised: Knowledge Exchange through Transdisciplinarity and Mode 2 Knowledge  Professor Anita Walsh,  School of Business, Economics and Informatics  Birkbeck, University of London  co-author: Professor Philip Powell, University for the Creative Arts	Four sides of the story: A multi-stakeholder perspective of successful Student Engagement in Knowledge Exchange (SEKE)  Dr Zoe Dann, Dr Simona Panaro, Dr Chidubem Ikeatuegwu &amp; Dr Ekatarina Murecheva, Strategy Enterprise and Innovation (SEI), Faculty of Business and Law, University of Portsmouth Developing a sustainable, student-led speech and language therapy clinic.  Caroline Law, Plymouth Marjon University Making an Impact: Makerspaces as a vehicle for knowledge exchange  Peter Mylon, Multidisciplinary Engineering Education, The University of Sheffield
12:20-13:30	E207	Lunch and poster session  Tour of Labs and clinic space available: 1250-1320

Student-led Knowledge Exchange

13:30-14:20	E206	Presenting a model of student-led knowledge exchange for transformative learning Prof Debby Cotton, Dr Sue Cooper and Alex Walker, Plymouth Marjon University
14:25-15:25		  Panel discussion: E206 Working with Universities for Knowledge Exchange: Conditions for Success Led by Prof Saul Bloxham, Plymouth Marjon University (PMU)  With Liz Edwards-Smith (Evaesco Consulting), Jan Potter (Livewell Southwest), Dr Joe Layden and Sam Vaughan (PMU)   Panel discussion: E208 Partnership for Knowledge Exchange in the Arts and Education Led by Prof Debby Cotton, Plymouth Marjon University (PMU)  with Dr Sue Cooper (PMU), Dr Kate Massey-Chase &amp; Dr Alan Butler (PMU and Pride in Plymouth)
15:30-16:30	E206	Marjon Academy Lecture Series 'Response and responsibility: the role of universities in a more sustainable future' Professor Zoe Robinson, Professor of Sustainability in HE at Keele University.
16:30-17:30	E207	Drinks reception and networking